FOREWORD

The Government of Kenya (GoK) is committed to ensuring that policy objectives for Education, Training and Research meet the aspirations of the Kenya Constitution 2010, the Kenya Vision 2030, National Curriculum Policy 2019, the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and the Regional and Global conventions to which Kenya is a signatory.

Towards achieving the mission of Basic Education, the Ministry of Education (MoE) embarked on a reform process that culminated in the adoption of a Competency Based Education (CBE) system in 2017. This came after extensive research, stakeholder engagement international benchmarking and consideration of the 21st Century socio-economic realities. CBE in Kenya adopted a 2-6-3-3 structure where the numbers indicate the years learners take at various levels in Basic Education (Pre-Primary, Primary, Junior School and Senior School; respectively). CBE has for critical elements: The Competency Based Curriculum (CBC), Pedagogy (teaching and learning), Resources and the Competency Based Assessment. The MoE oversees the provision of resources while the other components (Curriculum, Pedagogy and Assessment are handled by the Kenya Institute of Curriculum Development, (KICD), Teachers Service Commission, (TSC) and the Kenya National Examinations Council (KNEC); respectively.

KICD has successfully developed curriculum designs that have been used in the implementation of the Competency Based Curriculum (CBC) for the Pre-Primary, Primary and Juniors School levels. The first cohort of learners pursuing the CBC will transit to Senior School (Grades 10-12) in 2026. The curriculum designs at this level are expected to facilitate learners to acquire relevant knowledge, skills, values and attitudes (competencies) in preparation for tertiary education and the world of work. I urge all agencies of the GoK and other stakeholders in Education to use the designs to plan for effective and efficient implementation of Competency Based Education.

PREFACE

The Ministry of Education (MoE) through the State Department for Basic Education, has been implementing the Competency Based Education (CBE) since the adoption of the Basic Education Curriculum Framework (KICD, 2017) during the national convention in January 2017. The Kenya Institute of Curriculum Development (KICD) developed Competency Based Curriculum (CBC) designs that were used for pilot studies in 2017 and 2018 before the roll-out at Pre-Primary and Primary Early Year (Grades 1 to 3 in 2019. The curriculum was then introduced in the subsequent grades through a phase in –phase out strategy, to ensure a smooth transition. Currently, the first cohort of CBC learners are at Grade 9 – the last grade at Junior School. The implementation of CBE has since benefited immensely from the recommendations of the Presidential Working Party on Education Reforms (PWPER) that were released in August, 2023 and fully implemented, in terms of curriculum designs.

Grade 10 is the entry class of the Senior School (SS) in Basic Education, a very critical level where learners shall have the opportunity to focus on pathways, tracks and subjects of their choices guided by the potentials demonstrated at earlier levels. The Senior School shall; therefore, form a foundation for further education and training and/or initial competencies for the Industry. This is an important step in the realisation of the Vision and Mission of the curriculum reforms as enshrined in the Sessional Paper No. I of 2019 whose title is: Towards Realizing Quality, Relevant and Inclusive Education and Training for Sustainable Development in Kenya.

The Grade 10 curriculum designs, like the designs for earlier levels, are anchored on the Kenyan National Goals of Education. They also present essence statements, general and specific expected learning outcomes as well as strands and sub strands for the learning areas. The designs also outline suggested learning experiences, key inquiry questions, core competencies, Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs), values and suggested assessment.

The Ministry of Education, through the State Department for Basic Education commits to provide resources and relevant guidelines for a smooth implementation of the CBC. It is expected that the designs will guide teachers to effectively facilitate learners to attain the expected learning outcomes for Grade 10 specifically and Senior School in general.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Kenya Institute of Curriculum Development (KICD) Act Number 4 of 2013 (Revised 2019) mandates the Institute to develop curricula, programmes and curriculum support materials for Basic and Tertiary Education and Training. The curriculum development process involves research, international benchmarking and robust stakeholder engagement. Through a systematic and consultative process, the KICD conceptualised the Competency Based Curriculum (CBC) as captured in the Basic Education Curriculum Framework (KICD,2017), that responds to the demands of the 21st Century, the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). African Agenda 2063, East African Community Protocol and the aspirations captured in the Kenya Constitution 2010 and the Kenya Vision 2030.

KICD receives its funding from the GoK to enable the successful achievement of the stipulated mandate and implementation of the Government and Education sector plans. The Institute also receives support from development partners targeting specific programmes. The Grade 10 curriculum designs were developed with the support of the World Bank and GoK through the Kenya Primary Education Equity in Learning Programme (KPEELP); a project coordinated by the MoE. Therefore, the Institute is very grateful to the GoK, through the MoE and the development partners (especially The World Bank) for support in terms of policy guidance, resource provision and capacity building. Specifically, I wish to express special thanks to the Cabinet Secretary-MoE and the Principal Secretary-State Department for Basic Education.

We also wish to acknowledge the KICD curriculum development officers and other staff, all teachers, educators who took part as panellists; the institutions that participated and representatives of various stakeholders for their roles in the development of the Grade 10 curriculum designs. In relation to this, we acknowledge the support of the Chief Executive Officers of the Teachers Service Commission (TSC), the Kenya National Examinations Council (KNEC) and other agencies in the sector for their support in the process of developing these designs.

Finally, we are very grateful to the KICD Council Chairperson and other members of the Council for consistent guidance and oversight. We assure all teachers, parents and other stakeholders that these curriculum designs will effectively guide the implementation of the CBE at Grade 10 and preparation of learners for transition to further education and training or the world of work.

NATIONAL GOALS OF EDUCATION

Education in Kenya should:

1. Foster nationalism and patriotism and promote national unity
   The people of Kenya belong to different communities, races and religions, but these differences need not divide them. They must be able to live and interact as Kenyans. It is a paramount duty of education to help young people acquire this sense of nationhood by resolving conflicts and promoting positive attitudes of mutual respect, to live together in harmony and foster patriotism, and make a positive contribution to the life of the nation.

2. Promote the social, economic, technological, and industrial needs for national development
   Education should prepare the youth of the country to play an effective and productive role in the life of the nation.
   a) Social Needs
      Education in Kenya must prepare children for changes in attitudes and relationships that are necessary for the smooth progress of a rapidly developing modern economy. In the wake of rapid modernisation, there is bound to be a silent social revolution. Education should assist our youth to adapt to this change.
   b) Economic Needs
      Education in Kenya should produce citizens with the skills, knowledge, expertise, and personal qualities required to support a growing economy. Kenya is building a modern and independent economy that needs an adequate and relevant domestic workforce.
   c) Technological and Industrial Needs
      Education in Kenya should provide learners with the necessary skills and attitudes for industrial development. Kenya recognises the rapid industrial and technological changes taking place, especially in the developed world. We can only be part of this development if our education system is deliberately focused on the knowledge, skills and attitudes that will prepare our young people for these changing global trends.

3. Promote individual development and self-fulfillment
   Education should provide opportunities for the fullest development of individual talents and personality. It should help children to develop their potential interests and abilities. A vital aspect of individual development is the building of character.

DRAFT

4. Promote sound moral and religious values.
   Education should provide for the development of knowledge, skills and attitudes that will enhance the acquisition of sound moral values and help children to grow up into self-disciplined, self-reliant and integrated citizens.

5. Promote social equality and responsibility.
   Education should promote social equality and foster a sense of social responsibility within an education system that provides equal educational opportunities for all. It should give all children varied and challenging opportunities for collective activities and corporate social service irrespective of gender, ability or geographical environment.

6. Promote respect for and development of Kenya's rich and varied cultures.
   Education should instill in the youth of Kenya an understanding of past and present cultures and their valid place in contemporary society. Children should be able to blend the best of traditional values with the changing requirements that must follow rapid development to build a stable and modern society.

7. Promote international consciousness and foster positive attitudes towards other nations.
   Kenya is part of the international community. It is part of the complicated and interdependent network of peoples and nations. Education should therefore lead the youth of the country to accept membership of this international community with all the obligations and responsibilities, rights and benefits that this membership entails.

8. Promote positive attitudes towards good health and environmental protection.
   Education should inculcate in young people the value of good health for them to avoid indulging in activities that will lead to physical or mental ill health. It should foster positive attitudes towards environmental development and conservation. It should lead the youth of Kenya to appreciate the need for a healthy environment.

THE SENIOR SCHOOL IN THE COMPETENCY BASED CURRICULUM

Senior School is the fourth level of Basic Education in the Competency Based Curriculum (CBC) that learners shall proceed to after the Pre-Primary School, Primary School and Junior School levels. The essence of Senior School is to offer learners a pre-tertiary/university/ pre-career experience in which the learners have an opportunity to choose pathways, tracks and subjects where they shall have demonstrated interest and/or potential at the earlier levels. Senior School comprises three years of education for learners generally in the 16-18 years age bracket and lays the foundation for further education and training at the tertiary level and the world of work. In the CBC vision, learners exiting this level are expected to be engaged, empowered and ethical citizens ready to participate in the socio-economic development of the nation.

At this level, learners shall take seven (7) learning areas as recommended by the Presidential Working Party on Educational Reforms (PWPER, 2023). These shall comprise four compulsory learning areas namely: English, Kiswahili, Essential Mathematics/Core Mathematics and Community Service Learning (CSL). Learners will choose between Core Mathematics (for learners pursuing the Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics Pathway) and Essential Mathematics (for learners pursuing the non-STEM pathways). The learner will select three learning areas depending on their career choice, aptitude, interest and personality with guidance by the career teacher at Senior School.

LEARNING OUTCOMES FOR SENIOR SCHOOL

By the end of Senior School, the learner should be able to:

1. Communicate effectively and utilise information and communication technology across varied contexts.
2. Apply mathematical, logical and critical thinking skills for problem solving.
3. Apply basic research and scientific skills to manipulate the environment and solve problems.
4. Exploit individual talents for leisure, self-fulfilment, career growth, further education and training.
5. Uphold national, moral and religious values and apply them in day-to-day life.
6. Apply and promote health care strategies in day-to-day life.
7. Protect, preserve and improve the environment for sustainability.
8. Demonstrate active local and global citizenship for harmonious co-existence.
9. Demonstrate appreciation of diversity in people and cultures.
10. Manage pertinent and contemporary issues responsibly.

ESSENCE STATEMENT

Learning foreign languages is a prerequisite for global citizenship; The National Goals of Education advocate promoting international consciousness and fostering positive attitudes towards other nations, Proficiency in the French languages empowers one and provides limitless opportunities to enjoy the privileges, rights, and benefits of global citizenship and contribute positively to its very existence. At Junior School, learners were equipped with the four language skills at a basic level with emphasis on the non-formal aspect of learning. French at Senior School builds on the acquisition of the four language skills acquired at Junior School, namely: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. In addition, the learners will cover grammar and phonological awareness. These language competencies offer learners opportunities to deepen their understanding of the language. The learners will also cover six thematic areas, namely: social life, my environment, tourism, health, school and world of work and the world of business.

Learning in Senior School is delivered through interactive and participatory methods designed to unlock learners' multiple intelligences. This includes inquiry-based learning, explorative learning and action-based learning. These learner-centered approaches foster critical thinking, problem solving, and intercultural communication skills essential for personal and academic growth. By the end of Senior School, learners are expected to communicate with greater fluency and confidence, achieving an intermediate level of proficiency equivalent to B1 in the CEFR framework.

Having successfully gone through the cycle, the learner should be adequately equipped with necessary competencies to pursue further studies and fit into the world of work. Proficiency in French opens limitless opportunities in diverse fields such as education, international relations and diplomacy, translation and interpretation, tourism, hospitality, journalism, media, and public relations. It also enhances learners' adaptability and competitiveness in a globalised world where multilingualism is a valuable asset.

DRAFT

GENERAL SUBJECT LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of senior school, the learner should be able to:

1. listen and respond appropriately to a variety of audio stimuli,
2. use spoken language to communicate effectively,
3. read to analyse texts on a variety of themes,
4. create various forms of written communication using varied media,
5. apply grammar effectively in all contexts of communication,
6. exhibit digital literacy skills responsibly in learning and communication,
7. apply acquired knowledge and skills to address pertinent and contemporary issues,
8. exhibit desired values and attitudes in all forms of communication,
9. appreciate cultural diversity for cohesive existence and global citizenship

2.0 Reading	2.1 Reading for Vocabulary	By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to: a) derive meaning of words from simple texts, b) read simple texts to pick out vocabulary to show understanding, c) show interest in reading simple texts.	The learner is guided to: • select varied forms of greetings from simple texts, [Bonjour! Bonsoir !] • read flashcards with words on greetings and taking leave and rearrange them to form simple sentences, • pick out vocabulary from a written text and use it to communicate effectively in a social setup, • match the vocabulary of members of the family to the given images [C'est mon pre], • read captions with images to acquire vocabulary on friends and members of the nuclear and extended family, • find the meaning of the vocabulary in reading texts, collaboratively.	1. Why do we read? 2. How do you identify words?

DRAFT

Core Competencies to be developed: Self-efficacy: this is brought out as the learner reads and identifies vocabulary from texts.
Values: Unity: this is nurtured as the learner works together to understand the meaning of the vocabulary when reading texts.
Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs): Social Awareness: the learner uses the vocabulary acquired to communicate effectively in a social situation.

3.0 Writing	3.1 Informative Writing	By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to: a) list vocabulary from varied simple texts with the correct orthography, b) construct simple texts using acquired vocabulary with the correct language patterns, c) and show enthusiasm in constructing sentences following the correct language structure.	The learner is guided to: • underline vocabulary in texts about family and numbers, • fill in missing letters to form words on numbers, family members, and greetings, • make letter flashcards and create words on family members in pairs, • use selected words to create short, simple sentences, • rearrange jumbled-up words to create simple logical sentences, • match vocabulary on the nuclear family to the correct images from texts, • write simple texts to introduce members of one's family and friends and display them on the wall for others to read.	What do you consider while writing simple texts?
Core Competencies to be developed: • Critical thinking and Problem solving: this is developed as the learner follows simple instructions to solve a problem while using selected words to create logical sentences.

DRAFT

Values: Responsibility: this is nurtured as the learner accomplishes tasks of creating flashcards with related vocabulary.
Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs): Self-esteem: this is developed as the learner writes about their family members and friends and display their work on the walls.

4.0 Grammar	4.1 Grammar	By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to: a) identify elements of grammar in simple texts, b) construct simple sentences with correct language structures, c) appreciate the importance of language structure in communication.	The learner is guided to: • pick out personal pronouns and match them to the correct forms of verbs for oneself, family members, and friends [je, il/elle…nous, s'appeler], • fill in the gaps with the appropriate possessive adjectives to introduce members of the family and friends, [mon, ma, mes, ton, sa], • rearrange jumbled-up words to make simple texts, • match personal pronouns to the correct form of the verbs, • source and watch audio-visual materials with countries and their nationalities jointly, • play conjugation games to practise reading different forms of verbs with peers. (S'appeler, habiter, être, parler, avoir), • seek guidance on how to conjugate verbs.	1. How do you introduce yourself, family and friends? 2. Why do you need to observe grammar in your communication?

DRAFT

Core Competencies to be developed: Digital Literacy: this is fostered as the learner manipulates digital devices to source for audio-visual materials.
Values: Unity: this is enhanced as the learner appreciates collaboration in learning while playing conjugation games collaboratively.
Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs): Self-awareness: this is brought out as the learner seeks guidance in understanding language structures.

THEME 2.0: MY ENVIRONMENT: MY HOME
Strand	Sub-Strand	Specific Learning Outcomes	Suggested Learning Experiences	Suggested Key Inquiry Question(s)
1.0 Listening and Speaking	1.2 Listening for Comprehension	By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to: a) identify the main theme from an audio text, b) extract relevant information from oral interactions, c) show enthusiasm while listening to various audio texts on different topics.	The learner is guided to: • listen to audio sounds to differentiate sounds /u/ as in ou, vous, nous and /y / as in tu, du, vu, • listen collaboratively to an audio text and give a summary of location of different items in the home, • answer questions from an audio text on location of different items in the home (Où est la table? Elle est devant la porte), • draw a layout of a home from information gotten from an audio text, • take turns with peers in giving directions on how to reach their homes, (D'abord, allez tout droit, puis, tournez à gauche.... La maison est en face de l'hôpital) • identify the effects of elements of weather on the environment from information obtained from an audio text.	How can you locate different items in the home?

DRAFT

Core Competencies to be developed: Creativity and Imagination: this is developed as the learner synthesises information and use imagination to create images of various occurrences.
Values: Unity: this is nurtured as the learner cooperates with peers to listen to audio texts to summarise recorded information.
Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs): Safety and Security: this is brought about as the learner learns the importance of security and safety measures as they go to various destinations.

Core Competencies to be developed: Critical thinking and Problem-solving: this is developed as the learner engages in reflective thinking and critical observation to make connections between places and their locations.
Values: Responsibility: this is nurtured as the learner displays hard work in reading texts and responding to questions.
Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs): Self-awareness: this is brought about as the learner shows appreciation for weather elements in their environment.

DRAFT

Strand	Sub-Strand	Specific Learning Outcomes	Suggested Learning Experiences	Suggested Key Inquiry Question(s)
3.0Writing	3.2 Guided Writing	By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to: a) classify nouns and prepositions in a guided writing assignment, b) construct statements in guided writing exercises, c) appreciate the use of prepositions and nouns in writing tasks.	The learner is guided to: • locate different items in a house using prepositions (dans*, entre, devant, etc.),* • label in writing the items that are normally found in the kitchen and stick them on the classroom board, • write sentences with the vocabulary of items in a house and where they are normally placed, • fill in the blanks on an improvised weather report using nouns related to weather (la pluie, le vent, le soleil, etc.), • reconstruct in writing jumbled up statements with nouns that are related to weather.	Why is the arrangement of items important in a house?
Core Competencies to be developed: Self-efficacy: this is developed as the learner is guided to choose tasks, which are eventually done when the grammatical task is completed.

DRAFT

Values: Responsibility: this is enhanced as the learner is performing the writing task on how various items are placed in a home gives them some subtle orientation on responsibility.
Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs): Self–awareness: this is displayed as the learner is able to locate and situate items within their space or locality.

DRAFT

Strand	Sub-Strand	Specific Learning Outcomes	Suggested Learning Experiences	Suggested Key Inquiry Question(s)
4.0 Grammar	4.2 Grammar	By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to: a) identify prepositions and noun classes from the grammatical exercises, b) apply the prepositions and nouns within grammatical context, c) show an interest in two aspects of the grammatical structure.	The learner is guided to: • present images, diagrams, and physical objects to illustrate the prepositions (la tasse est sur la table, Mon lit est dans la chambre, etc.), • do matching games where they pair prepositions with the correct nouns using an improvised house plan, • fill in the blank exercises to place the appropriate prepositions, • present sentence scrambles that contain prepositions that should be reordered correctly, • complete the blanks with the correct preposition in a text. (Dans*, sur, derrier, devant, dehors ...),* • categorise nouns that deal with weather and display them on an improvised weather chart of a country, region, or county.	Why are prepositions important in the study of grammar?

DRAFT

Core Competencies to be developed: Communication and Collaboration: this is developed as the learner is encouraged to use the nouns and prepositions in an organised order as these grammatical structures are studied in class.
Values: Integrity: this is enhanced as the learner takes responsibility for learning actions as they perform the grammatical exercises and make amends or corrections when directed by the teachers (show how integrity is nurtured).
Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs): Self-awareness: this is nurtured as the learner develops a sense of self-assurance as the use prepositions appropriately in a grammatical task.
